Dear Mr. Fung:

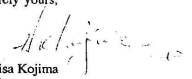

Thank you for your help in completing the Nikko Building. We are very satisfied with the building and with its quality construction. We believe it befits Shinjuku, the new center of Tokyo and we think it is the best building in the area.

I have enclosed photographs and negatives for you and I do apologize for the delay in sending them.

The successful completion of this building has greatly enhanced the relationship between our companies. I hope you will be successful in gaining further projects.

I trust you are well and I wish you and your company success and prosperity.

Sincerely yours,

Hirohisa Kojima
